

"E" Epistle
United Presbyterian Church of Cedar Grove, New Jersey

Week Leading to Sunday, July 11, 2010

Sunday, July 11
Worship at 10:00 am

Thought for the Week

The church, like Israel before us, lives under the judgment of God. We are accountable, not simply to our own opinions about what is right and what is not, but to God's judgment. The prophets of God say that we shall be liable to judgment, a judgment not derived from our own sense of righteousness, or by the general standards of the society around us, but rather from God who is always ready to begin again with us.

Scripture

Amos 7:7-17
Luke 10:25-37

Introduction to the Reading

Amos 7:7-17: Amos is called by God to speak words of judgment to Israel. God is holding Israel accountable through the prophet.

Luke 10:25-37: A man walks up to Jesus and asks him what he must do to inherit eternal life. In response, Jesus tells the story of the Samaritan who showed active mercy to a man in desperate need.

Sermon

To Begin Again

Hymns

Come Sing to God
Make Me a Captive Lord
To God Be the Glory

Prayer

Almighty God, equip us we pray for the tasks to which you have called us. Enable us one day to stand before you and to be able to hear you say to us, "Well done, good and faithful servants." Amen.

FALL FUN AND FELLOWSHIP

Summer has just begun...but what are your plans for the Fall?

We are thinking about taking a trip this fall with our members and friends of UPCCG! We would like to go to the Paper Mill Playhouse this October to see the show "Hairspray" and are wondering if you would be interested in joining us? Please fill out this form and return to church or email Jamie Lynn at mustangsally416@aol.com so we can see if we can generate enough interest to go.

Name: _____

Number of attendees: _____

Preferred date (circle one):

October 2

October 9

October 16

Ticket price (circle one):

$27.50 (rear mezzanine)

$47.30 (front mezzanine/rear orchestra)

$61.70 (front orchestra)

Please note that we do not all have to sit in the same section. Also note that the higher up you go, the more steps there will be.

If we have enough people interested in going, we will have more information for you soon! Please return your form as soon as possible. Hope you will join us!

Thanks,
